ED AT ROTLAND, TT. ERY RETURNAY MORNIA G. M. B. BRABAS, Manari BARREY, Assistant Editor.

What the fall.

Yes, you talk beautifully—but I know
Just how 'twould be, in an months after wedding
Vanished would be your passion's ardest glow,
White I, in same hose corner, should be shedding
Tours, bitter tears, for your base perfoly—Don't talk to the !

do not choose to break my maps;
By pinning it to this waten productation;
The better far that we at precent part;
Than seek, mosthe horses, a legal expension.
Find some tore who'll be guiled more easily,
Ilon's talk to me

The Memory of the Heart.

We keep them in the memory of the brain ; Names, things and facts-whate'er we And images on this cold surface traced

But we've a page more glowing and more bright. That these may never from the soul depart, Each new pulsation keeps the record clear ; Warm, golden letters, all the tablet fill,

THE HERENADE;

"It's no use your boasting, gentlemen Watkins from you all, and that I am willing

You 'ha! ha! that is too good !" exclaim ed the other three in uncontrollable amuse-ment. "Jerennah Jobbs, the pursy little grocer, win Zephyrina Watkins from such young fellows as we are! Have you been fore him. tippling, old fellow?"

remish drew his little round furure un to its utmost beight, and replied with a slight shade of offended dignity-

"You may laugh, gentlemen, but I am illing to stake an X on my fortune against the of either of you. Who will take my

"I -ill," replied one of the young men. steppinaforward and producing his money "and if I'all, you are welcome to everything else wave, for I have determined win the girl, and have set my happiness on "I board, Mr. sacs, that you were sweet upon the young line; but if I don't cut you out, then my name hat Johbs."

"And if you do, I who mine wasn't Jones; so good night—I must by on Zephyrina."
"You may call," though to himself, but I'll spoil your next intelligen, old fellow.

Jeremish went home to the ble room at the back of his store, and busied inself in arraying his pumpkin-shaped bod, to the carefully possestuared; his whiskers cthed;

If also has any taste she can't help

Somewhat cooled, but not disheartened, the enthusiastic lover gathered himself up ejaculated Jeremiah, and thereupon he drew his bow seroes the strings with a igly; "go it, Jobbs, my boy. Jones, how ing to the accompaniment of a demented "Lady awilke, get out of bed, Oh, let me see thy star-like head— Thy life lovely none; Oh, let me hear thy.—"

"Scat! get cout! Plague take the cats! Must they go seronading at the same time with me? Scat! get cout, you infernal torments!" and with these words he flung a stone at the offending feline.

"That brings her," he remarked to himself, as the shade of a female figure in a listening attitude appeared on the window curtain: "now for an effort of genius:"

dilapidation in his dress behind.

"Murder! thieves!" screamed a voice above, the possessor of said voice at the same time bestowing a shower-bath on the unhappy serenader.

"Row ow " round a huge dog which from a portion of Jeremiah's rearward attire. manner of Jesus of Nazareth ?- (N.Y. Mir. "I've caught yer, have I, yer infernal thief?" sputtered the enraged master of the aying a heavy horsewhip with great vigor on Jeremiah's back.

"Oh! oh!" rosred the serenader, dropping his fiddle, and making a rush for the gate which providentially stood open be-exclaimed a voice, as the fugitive suddenly found his progress arrested by a hand beif it isn't Jeremiah Jobba. What's the matter, man?

Jeremiah looked up; there was that infernal Jones, with Zephyrina hanging on

"Zephyrina, this is a friend of mine-Jobbs, Miss Watkins."

The unhappy serenader stan the window, just now P "I? Ob, no, I am just returning

Mr. Jones, from a concert." "Who is that, then?" pointing to the win dow in which a female figure was just pulling back the blinds.

"That? that is Dinah, my colored wo "Oh Lord?" and the discomfitted grocer was flying down the road.
"Stop " shouted Jones; "you'll lose your handkerchief-it's flying out be hars disposed to descart on his power

pand-looking follow like to turn up, im. and of going stoodily to work been stell, sellow faced to turn up, im. and of going stoodily to work thankful and see more of God and Christ in pointed by the wearer. She may not be This was an arduous task, but after many a decent bone, or a half mouldy crust, than handsome or accomplished, but we will anvain attempts he eventually succeeded in in never so many calls to prayer and trib-rolling over the top, and coming down on all ulation of spirit. In fact these wretched, temporally suffering sinners, are already under a weight of tribulation great as they can bear-many of them often, as they and passed around the house. A light look upon their own squalor and want and then on the proud apparel and plenty of the rich and pious around them, thinkingly boatswam, on getting past exertions, was curse God. They do so unwittingly.—for appointed by the latter, in grateful memo-

RU = AND, VT., SATURDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 25, 1852.

the "Sleek" family is too numerous in the ing over the gardens, that several of the Church, and that it is too full of "Jellaby" beds were pawed about, and the borders philanthropy. Christ went about "doing destroyed, indicating by their marks the good"-how? by feeding the hungry, stealthy visits of some canine wanderer. went at it like a bull-frog in a tin pan, singthe temporal wound, before urging the berry bed.

legacies to rich churches, the dying would instead of piling up contributions to sus-tain Tract and Missionary Societies, with their well clad, well fed and well paid of-"I see thy shade, O tady bright, Thy shadow is a shape of light,
So that it binds my eyes.
Thyself, dear maid, I truly love
All other earthy things above—
Age, even pumpkin-pis:"

"Thieves! murder!" yelled Jeremiah, as ficials, the wealthy followers of the "Meek he became suddenly aware of a grievous record as a voucher of at least the partial fitness of the giver for Paradise. All good angels would record it in their books, and there would be a jubilee of glad hears on earth, and of approving souls in Heaven. Newspapers, too, would not be slow in adding their good word. Who will-as winwas busy shaking a piece of cloth abstracted ter is now upon u :- be a christian after the > Jeremy Diddler in a Meat Shop. We were amused, quite "took down," by an incident in a provision store, a few eveuings since. Everybody has seen-that is to say, people who have the happy faculty of seeing at all—those old sponging fossils who hang around shops and bar-rooms, and More voluntarily, for the proprietors. Well we had occasion to trade, a few evenings since, in a store where an old fossil was or hand; he hung on through a regiment of customers coming and going, and put in a word whenever and wherever an opening men's wife, with her bushand's bard-carned dimes in her fingers, "thirty cents a pound, sakes, but it's high !"

"High?" echoes the old fossil, not giv ing the provision dealer time to say a word, "I wouldn't mind taking all Mr. Cutlet has, at that price."

The woman looked at him, and scowled dreful! The dealer smiled! Anothr customer ventured to observe-

"Ham is up, Mr. Cotlet, ain't it-seventeen cents a pound, pretty stiff price that."

teither in her fashions or her material.—
The secret simply consists in knowing the here own ago, and her own points; and no more ownesses well who does not. After this we need not say that wheerer is attracted by the costume will be disappointed by the wearer. She may not be handsone or accomplished, but we will an swer for her being even-tempered, well-informed, thoroughly sensible—a complete informed, thoroughly sensible—a complete lady."

The secret simply consists in knowing the total a proper certificate of his election, and no such election in one or more newspapers printed in such county, tien in one or more papers printed in the twelfth sections of the such papers of the term of one tless than five galloes for medicinal, the manufactors and such counties for nice of the such case of th clothing the naked, opening the eyes of the Jack immediately communicated the new blind, and everywhere in the dwellings of to his Lordship, who concurred with him the poverty-stricken and bowed down, sow- as to its cause, and advised him to go to for his services as the selectinen of the city, lowly and deformed humanity. Verily, he was the gentle Shepherd who knew how to call back the estray and wandering to the fold; how to inspire in the rudest and long lean dog, between a pointer and a long lean dog, between a long lean dog, bet ing a seed of kind words in the heart of the garden a few hours earlier in the morhardest soul a confidence in, and a love of mastiff, spring upon the garden wall and God. Who that was hungry or athirst in jumping into the garden, began running the flesh, did he cast off with a husk of un- about, and exploring, with a degree of ac solacing speech? Did he not ever heal tivity and keenness, the depths of a straw-

We should rejoice in a near prospect of moment the dog had burrowed his head out the Millenium, if, instead of leaving rich of sight in the earth, the tar stole behind him with a spade, and at a blow struck off > into the garden, Jack accosted him-"All right, yer honor; we were boards by a dog, sure enough, of a long, sharp, and dark in the midships."

"And what did you do to him, Jack ?" "I prevented his finding his way here

"Did you kill him, Jack "?"

"Oh, no, please your honor, I laid by unwhen I seed him bowse his bows in the strawberry bed, I dropped softly astern, and with this here too! unshipped his

On whitsuntide afternoon, there are no be seen in the summer gardens of St. Petersburg the daughters of the middling class, ranged in long rows, dressed in their Matrimony is the object of the display. Young bachelors walk up and down the line of damsels, critically inspecting them as they pass. Should their eye indidate that they have made a choice, a matchmaking friend of the young lady's steps out of the rear rank, joins the would-be wooer, informing him of the girl's circumstances, of her family, dowry, of her house wifely qualities, etc., and obtains from him similar information respecting himself .-Should they come to an understanding, the matchmaker conducts her candidate to the mother, who introduces him to her danch ter, invites him to her house, and a wedding is the most usual result of the ac-

"Stiff price?" says old fossil, "why, I tended personally the produce of his dairy, bought four hans last week, down in Quin- and not unfrequently sold the milk to the cy market, none haif as good as that, and village children with his own hands. One sell at some central or convenient place in consequence of such a person having therein, intoxicating liquor, to be used for medicinal, chemical, and mechanical purposes only; and the money received for such sales shall be paid into the treasuries shall take precedence of all other trials in such sales shall be paid into the treasuries shall take precedence of all other trials in the court in which they are pending, except such agent shall receive such compensation those in criminal cases where the respondprescribe; and shall hold his situation for one year, unless sooner removed by said commissioner, or his successor in office.—

And in case such appointment becomes value of the person to the situation for the remainder of the year: the situation for the remainder of the year:

$ 12. If any three persons, voters in successor in office.—

$ 12. If any three persons, voters in sum in which the respondent is ordered to find bonds. And in case any such wincom to believe, and do believe, that intoxicating to believe, that intoxicating peace in the county of the peace in the county, that they have reason to believe, and do believe, that intoxicating peace ordered, he may be committed to paid on the warrant of the justice or court in the same are holder.

on the lookout there in the shrubbery, and of which, to said county, we bind ourselves, when I seed him howse his bows in the our heirs, executors and administrators

Provided that if the said -

treasurer of the town where such offence fine of twenty dollars and costs, if, in the is committed, upon the first conviction, ten opinion of said justice, said liquor was kept dollars and costs of prosecution; on the second conviction he shall forfest and pay trary to the purpose of sale, convection to the seaforesaid twenty dollars and the costs of custom house certificate of importation, and prosecution; and on the third conviction. he shall forfeit and pay as aforesaid twen- which such liquor is contained correspond-ty dollars and costs, and be imprisoned in ing thereto, shall not be received as eviconcurrent jurisdiction in their several country country country country to the accommenced. Some may smile at this fact, but the cynical will declare that the custom is by no means peculiar to Russia.

(I) An English Earl, of posipous notoriety, and a parsimonious celebrity; superintended personally the produce of his dairy, and not unfrequently sold the milk to the willings children with his own hands. One

The Cherch of the Peritans, Charge and service of the paged article, and the expectation of the larged article, and larged article, and the larged article, and the larged article, and the larged article, and th

Jeremiah's heart went like the hopper of a mill, or like a woodpecker's tapping on a hollow tree. Arranging his cravat and doffing his hat, he smoothed up his hair and his fiddle.

They do so unwittingly.—for a ppointed by the latter, in grateful memoty of his former conduct, a kind of sub-gar-dorse as soon after as may be convenient, may charged from such pannel; and if he and edger, at his marine villa. Jack had not of any town or city in the country, to answer, and in the charged from such pannel; and if he and or as soon after as may be convenient, may charged from such pannel; and if he and or as soon after as may be convenient, may charged from such pannel; and of any town or city in the country, to answer, and in the charged from such pannel; and of any town or city in the country, to answer, and in the charged from such pannel; and of any town or city in the country, to answer, and in the charged from such pannel; and of any town or city in the country, to answer, and in the country of the answer. The country is a point some suitable person as the agent in the country to answer. The charged from such pannel; and the country to answer, and in the charged from such pannel; and the charged from such pannel; and the country to answer. The country to answer, and in the charged from such pannel; and the charged from such pannel; and the country to answer. The country to answer, and in the charged from such pannel; and the country to answer. The country to answer. The charged from such pannel; and the charged from such pannel; and the country to answer. The country to answer. The charged from such pannel; and the charged from such pannel; and the charged from such pannel; and the country to answer. The charged from such pannel; and the charged Provided, that no inn-keeper, or keeper of a house of public entertainment, shall be house, store, shop, steamboat, or water appointed such agent in any town or city craft of any kind, depot, railroad, car, or $ 4. Such agent shall receive a certifi-other building or place in said town, and to from the commissioner appointing him, intended for sale, by any person not authorto sell intoxicating liquor for medicinal, peace shall issue a warrant to any sheriff or the county of the same and convey it to some proper place of security and keep the same until final action is had thereen; and the owner or sunmoned by him to appear torthwith before the justice issuing the warrant; and if he fail to appear, or to show by satisfac-the same has been imported under the laws shall, so of the United States, and in accordance the provisions of this act, them this obliga-tion shall be void; otherwise of force."

5. If any person, by himself, clerk, servant or agent, shall sell, furnish or give away, any intoxicating liquor in violation of this act, he shall forfeit and pay to the treasurer of the town where such offere such liquor shall pay to said town a such order in the place where and the place where and intended for sale, con-certifying, upon the back thereof, the exe-ation of this act, he shall forfeit and pay to the continuous that they have reason to believe and do believe that intoxicating the person appointed by him, and named in the they are deposited in (describing with the officer executing such order in the place where and intended for sale, con-certifying, upon the back thereof, the exe-above mentioned; and the justica to whom the same is made shall certify thereon, in the county jail not less than three months, dence that the liquor contained in such packages is that actually imported therein.

§ 6. Justices of the peace shall have concurrent jurisdiction in their several counties with the county court, to hear and determined the officer seizing the same, it shall before inaking such order.

§ 18. Complaints for any offences gainst the fifth section of this act shall be substantially in the following form, to wit: "STATE OF VERMONT, ( To A. B. justice to sell intoxicating liquor for medicinal, peace shall issue a warrant to any sheriff or chemical and mechanical purposes only; constable of the state, to search the premiser of the town of in said county, and but such certificate shall not be delivered es described in such complaint; and if any unto him, or take effect, until he shall, if intoxicating liquor is found therein under the complaints that E.E. of — on the day of intoxicating liquor is found therein under the country of — comes C. D., grand jurcounted by the complaints that E.E. of — on the day of intoxicating liquor is found therein under the country of — comes C. D., grand jurcounted by the country of — comes C. D., grand j unto him, or take effect, until he shall, if intoxicating liquor is found therein under required by the commissioner, have executed and delivered a bond with two good and sufficient sureties, to said commissioner, it is intended for sale contrary to the proper place of substance, as follows:

A.D.—at—, as a diversumes sentiur nish, or give away, (as the case may be) intoxicating liquor, without authority, contrative to the same of this act, such officer shall seize the same and convey it to some proper place of security and keep the same until final "Know all men that we _____, action is had thereon; and the owner or sprincipal, and _____ as sureties, keeper of the liquor so seized, if he be are holden to the county of ____ in the ____ known to the officer seizing the same, shall stantially as follows:—"This complaint, cahibited to me this — day of —— A. D.

—— A. B., justice of the peace." And for all offences against the ninth section of this act, the complaint shall be in substantially the same form, is enting the words tially the same form, is ting the words "became a manufacturer of" or "common seller" (as the case may be) in licu of the words "did at divers times sell, furnish, or give away." And in cases arising under the twelfth section of this act, the complaint shall commence substantially in the same manner, and proceed in substance as follows:—"Come C. D., E. F., and G. H., legal voters in the town of ____, in said county, and complain that they have reason to believe and do believe that intoxicating the same is made shall certify thereon, in substance as follows, viz .- The above named C. D., E. P., and G. H., exhibited hamed C. D., E. P., and G. H., exhibited this complaint to me, and made oath to the truth thereof, this — day of —, A. D., —, before me, A. B., justice of the peace.

And in cases arising under the fifteently section of this act, the complaint shall follow the same form, substantially, as far as the word "complains," and then proceed, in substance as follows:—"That E. P., of —, on the — day of A. D. -, on the — day of —, A. D. -kept or sold (as the case may be) in a ribing the place,) near (describing and not unfrequently sold the milk to the yearhout one haif as good as that, and I paid shifting a pound, clear through."

The customer gave one glarne at the edd fossil, as much as to say, "you'll do." got his barn, and shift After watching the manney of the old from. If or some time, we determined to see him out. He, finding it was of no nee waiting to see as out, slipe up to the dealer, and not of whispering in his ear, says he—

"I'd like to have about a pound and a life to the watching to the wholey fixes to be nefectly, but every law, you got lest week?"

Old foreal vanoed, hike a conset cutting the rails of the like of the some town, it is sum of the first and not of received against him yet and not unfrequently sold the milk to the village children with his own hands. One and paid foreigner may also be recovered in a which secret, and and most number of debt in the name of such town, for modification of the collect of the clearer, and at shall be the day of the relectance, on because there are purposed of the collecte and of the control. After watching the manney reported the sum of making information, of the control of any such offence and one to make with supposition of any such offence and foreign such town to institute such action, on because the route of any such offence and under not have been kneed by an Earl."

"Ah " replied the child, "you took the penny, though."

"Ah " replied the child, "you took the penny, though."

"Ah " replied the child of the liver, and a bunch of them on one, if you please, life, Callet!"

"Ah " replied to think himself to be somebody. But every body is pleased by an Earl."

"And everybody is seemebody, but when any body thicke to be meltody, but every body is pleased to think himself to be somebody. The sold to think himself to be somebody, but when any body thinks everybody is seemebody, but when any body the sold to think himself to be somebody. The sold the first of the foreign consideration of sold pars, conditioned that he purpose as the bythe agent of such town,